

I. General provisions

1. The rules for using the CI trademark are established in the Agreement, which is signed by the enterprise during the certification / re-certification audit and refers to the "Certification Agreement", which is available on the CB website.
2. The right to use the mark extends only to the period of validity of the certificate and the scope of its application.
3. It is forbidden to use/transfer the CI mark to third parties, branches/subdivisions of the enterprise that are not included in the scope of the certificate.
4. The CI mark is transferred to the company in electronic form in the format .jpg/.jpeg/pdf/png.
5. The enterprise needs to send to the Certification Body for approval samples of documents where the trademark will be located.

II. The CI mark can be used on the following materials:

1. Company letterheads and letters.
2. Business cards, badges.
3. Calendars, notepads and other promotional materials.
4. On products and packaging subject to the following conditions:

- the CI mark cannot be used to mark a single product or applied to an individual product packaging (this may be an outer packaging made of cardboard, etc.);

- when using the CI mark on products and / or packaging, it is necessary to indicate that it is the quality management system that is certified according to ISO 9001:2015, avoiding the possible misleading of consumers that the product / service is certified.

III. Form

The logo can be used in any size, as long as its proportions (ratio between sides and elements) are preserved. At the same time, the number of the certificate must be indicated, which must be easily readable. It is forbidden to make any changes to the sign.

IV. Termination of use of the mark

The use of the CI mark ceases if:

1. The certificate has been suspended.
2. The certificate has been withdrawn.
3. The certificate has expired.

In some cases, it is allowed to use the CI mark for no more than one month from the date of entry into force of the decision to change the validity period of the certificate.
